News & What's coming up

Harvest Festival

Letters have now been sent home and copies can be found on our website.

This year we are once again supporting our local CAVS Children Centre who work throughout Castle Point. Please send in an item/s from the list below. Please can we ask you to send in the items on the day before the festival (Tuesday 11th October) so that we can display them.

Food items to send in: Tinned food for all the family (children and adults), pastas, cereals and squash. Please ensure items have long dates on them.

Other useful items that could be sent in: Shampoos (adults and children`s), Soaps, shower gels, toothbrushes, toothpastes, toilet roll, kitchen roll, nappies (various sizes), bathroom and kitchen cleaning products, washing up liquid etc. When families have no money they do need food but also household items.

School Photos

A reminder that order forms along with cash or cheques are returned no later than Friday 7th October.
